«It would be nice to have the help of a guidebook like this, to enter this new world, to set out on a new adventure and to be amazed to discover my city all over again.»
- Taken from the preface by Italian singer-songwriter Luca Carboni

This guidebook allows you to discover all Valeria Moschet's favourite places, restaurants and locations. A real inside source, she lives her city to the full every day. Among the hills and between the two towers, the My Lovely Bologna blogger reveals the city's secret corners from her unique and personal point of view. It is a guidebook that has been designed for tourists, visitors and even locals who want to delve into the mysteries of the Emilian capital. Like Me is a guidebook that will help you make the city your own.

EAT AND DRINK WHATEVER YOU LIKE

Among these pages, you can find advice organised by category on where to go for food and drink: coffee shops for breakfast, places for brunch, world restaurants, the list goes on.

SPEND YOUR FREE TIME HOWEVER YOU WANT

Find out where to go for an original shopping experience. Discover places you can relax or free activities that the city has to offer. Following Valeria's tips and pointers is just like having a friend to show you around.

A DIARY IN THE FORM OF A GUIDEBOOK

Some pages in this guidebook are set out like a notepad. Here, you can jot down your thoughts and feelings as well as anecdotes from a special trip.

A BOX FULL OF MEMORIES

In Bologna Like Me, you'll come across many original photographs taken by the author. They depict the most meaningful places and restaurants for her, but there's also room to add your own pictures too.

INFORMATION THAT IS ALWAYS UP TO DATE

By purchasing this guidebook, you will have access to an online address book that is updated regularly by the author.

L'AUTORE

Valeria Moschet was born in Veneto in 1977. She chose to go to university in Bologna and fell in love with the city, a place that she has called home for the past 22 years. Today, she works as a freelancer in communications and social media marketing as well as being an enthusiastic professional blogger. She loves to call herself a "tourist in her own city" because it is this desire to explore, dream and see the world through fresh eyes that allows her to make every single day special, even when she is at home.
