

SAGGISTICA*HOW TO WRITE A THESISdi Riccardo Pelizzo - Abel Kinyondo

Students and scholars, in general, need to write. They need to write papers, articles, books, book chapters, theses and dissertations. The purpose of this book is to provide students, at both the undergraduate and graduate level, with some guidance on how to write theses and dissertations in the social sciences. We wrote this book because we thought that students, regardless of how well they write, could learn to write better.
